There was a dog sleeping in the shade under a large tree. He was dreaming peacefully until a cat snuck up behind him and grabbed the dog's tail. The dog yelped when he felt the cat's sharp claws dig into him. The dog ran around the tree. Then he ran to the house but the cat was still chasing him. The dog thought he finally lost the cat but the cat ran between the dog's legs, over his nose, and underneath the deck. The dog was furious but couldn't get to the cat. The cat curled up to sleep until the dog finally gave up.
