

Fine Arts were on display earlier this week with the POPS concert as well as the art show right before.

Coming soon to theaters

Disney hopes to dominate the box office this summer

by Jayden Clark
staff writer

“We have our heading...Here we go!” The Disney movie franchise has experienced exceptional ratings in the film industry in the last few years for their long-awaited sequels, action-packed flicks, and tear-jerking cinema. But they aren’t done yet! Disney has a whole list of new movies they plan to release in 2019.

The earliest release on the list is the first female-led super hero movie: Captain Marvel. This movie, which came out on International Women’s Day (March 8), follows the fictional character of Carol Danvers as she gets caught in the middle of a galactic war between two alien races.

Flying into theaters a couple weeks later, on March 29, is the live action re-make of the 1941 movie Dumbo. Dumbo is a movie about a circus elephant with abnormally large ears who learns a new trick.

It’s a whole new.....live-action remake of the Disney classic Aladdin. Following the story of a street kid who falls for the princess, Aladdin is expected to land in theatres on May 24.

Another new release will take us back to the toy-box, as Toy Story 4 hits theatres on June 21. According to Disney-Pixar, the fourth Toy Story movie will follow the gang as they embark on a new adventure.

On July 19, the live-action remake of the 1994 motion picture The Lion King will roar in theatres. The movie will be using computer-animated technology to bring the animals and land to life “in a way that we have never seen before.”

On November 22, 2019, a long awaited Frozen 2 is coming to theatres. This sequel to the 2013 Disney original movie Frozen, follows Anna, Elsa, Kristoff, and Olaf as they head into the forest to learn about an ancient mystery surrounding their kingdom. Hopefully, as Olaf may say, this movie will be worth melting for.

More new releases coming out this year from Disney include: Penguins (April 17), Endgame (April 26), Artemis Fowl (August 9), and Star Wars: Episode IX (December 20).

This Week’s Need to Know

FACT OF THE WEEK: Rainbows are actually full circles not just arcs

LIFE HACK OF THE WEEK: Put glow in the dark paint or tape on your phone charger so you can easily locate it at night.

JOKE OF THE WEEK: What is a tornado’s favorite game to play?

BRAINTEASER OF THE WEEK: Can you solve this rebus puzzle?

Answers to joke and brainteaser are on the bottom.

Upcoming Events

- Friday, March 15
 - No School—Spring Break
- Monday, March 18
 - FFA @ Tri-Valley (10:00)
 - Honor Band @ Sioux Valley
 - Track starts
- Tuesday, March 19
 - Regional Science Fair in Brookings
- Wednesday, March 20
 - First Day of Spring
- Thursday, March 21
 - FFA @ Flandreau (10:00)
- Friday, March 22
 - PTO Breakfast (7:30-8:00)
 - TATU Lock-in for 4th/5th (3:00)

Worth Mentioning

- Choose Kind
- March Precept: “Kind words do not cost much. Yet they accomplish much.” - Blaise Pascal
 - February Precept: “It is better to know some of the questions than all of the answers.” - James Thurber
 - January Precept: “No man is an island, entire of itself.” - John Donne
 - December Precept: “Fortune favors the bold.” - Virgil
 - November Precept: “Have no friends not equal to yourself.”
 - October Precept: “Your deeds are your monuments.”
 - September Precept: “When given the choice between being right and being kind, choose kind.” - Dr. Wayne Dyer

Spring School Store closes on Sunday. Click here to order or go to <https://ghsspringsports2019.itemorder.com/sale>

Miss SD State Fair visits GHS

by Kennedy Buckneberg
staff writer

So how important is it to start planning your future ahead of time? As Miss State Fair visits Garretson High School and talks to all the classes, it is very important to be prepared when you graduate. Amber Hulse is currently a sophomore at USD and is majoring in political science. Hulse’s interest in politics led her to where she is today as serving as a legislative page to protecting her hometown of Hot Springs, South Dakota.

There’s a lot more to Hulse than just her passion for speaking to schools and wearing a crown. Amber also had a passion for music and to start pursuing it she started competing in the Miss South Dakota Organization when she was 13 years old. Hulse came to USD thinking that it wasn’t a big deal, and shortly realized how lucky and fortunate she really is. Miss State Fair really opened my eyes when she was talking about your future and what your doing when you leave high school because I haven’t thought much about it. Normally you plan your future junior and senior year and I have heard it goes by very fast. Thank you Miss State Fair for speaking to each grade and letting them know how important your future really is and truly opening many eyes.

Summit League Tournament

by Riley Altman
staff writer

Neither South Dakota team play in men's championship game

The first game of the summit league tournament on the men's side of the bracket Western Illinois (ranked 8) took down South Dakota State (ranked 1). Western Illinois made Summit League history that night, becoming the first No. 8 seed to beat the No. 1 seed. The jackrabbits were three-time defending champions before the upset that night. A week earlier the Jackrabbits beat the Leathernecks 86-66.

Mike Daum, from SDSU, scored 16 points putting him at 3,042 total points in his career. He is the ninth all-time scorer in NCAA history. Kobe Webster and Ben Pyle both led WIU with 17 points each. David Jenkins of SDSU shot a three pointer to bring the game to a one-point difference. Not too long after WIU got fouled and made two free throws to bring the point deficit to three. Jenkins shot with only seconds left was not enough to bring the Jackrabbits to a win. The game ended 79-76.

No. 2 Omaha beat No. 7 North Dakota on Saturday night to advance them to the next round. The game was North Dakotas first ever as part of the Summit League tournament. Zach Jackson led the Mavericks with 21 points in the win. For the Fighting Hawks, Marlon Stewart scored 26 points in the loss. The final score was 81-76. Omaha then played Purdue Fort Wayne.

Later in the tournament North Dakota State took down Oral Roberts. The Bison were ranked fourth and the Golden Eagles were ranked fifth. Tyson Ward led North Dakota State to a win with 25 points in the game. He was 11-13 at the line. North Dakota State was down 48-43 at halftime but came out on a 15-0 run to put the game in their control. The game ended 86-73.

No. 6 South Dakota was unable to stop No. 3 Purdue Fort Wayne on Sunday. John Konchar from Purdue Fort Wayne made history in the Summit League tournament, he led the Mastodons with 18 points, 10 rebounds, and 10 assists. Konchar became the first to ever have a triple double during the tournament.

Monday night the semi finals were held the games consisted of Western Illinois taking on North Dakota State and Purdue Fort Wayne taking on Omaha. Both games were very close and intense with a one point and three-point deficit. North Dakota State took down Western Illinois by three points. Sam Griesel put up 20 points for the Bison that night. Purdue fell to Omaha by one point. Another exciting game. Mitch Hahn scored a three from the corner at the end of the game to put them up 61-60. That was how the game ended.

The championship game was played on Tuesday night between North Dakota State and Omaha. North Dakota State beat Omaha 73-63 to win the 2019 Summit League tournament. The Bison also earn the automatic bid into the big dance.

Both South Dakota teams compete in women's championship game

To kick off the tournament the girls from South Dakota State took down Purdue Fort Wayne by a lot to move on to the semi finals. The Jackrabbits score 88 points and only allowed the Mastodons to score 50 points. Four jackrabbits were in double figures. Macy Miller led all players with 24 points on the day.

USD took down NDSU easily 74-51. Hannah Sjerven, USD, led her team with 20 points and tied game-high honors with most points of the bench. Emily Dietz of NDSU also put up 20 but didn't have much help from her teammates.

Oral Roberts punched their ticket to the semis when they beat Western Illinois by 4 points on Sunday. Lakota Betty made seven threes for ORU. This ties the tournament record with three other players. Led by Olivia Kaufmann, the Leathernecks had 4 players in double digits.

No. 6 North Dakota upsets No. 3 Denver 80-67. North Dakota was trailing by 16 points late in the second half but came back to win their first game ever played in the tournament. Jill Morton helped the win by putting up 15 points for the Hawks. North Dakota played next in the semis.

In the semi final game SDSU takes down ORU 86-55. Five Jackrabbits were in double figures including Macy Miller, Tagyn Larson, Myah Selland, Tylee Irwin, and Lindsey Theuninck. In the third quarter the Jacks held the Eagles to 8 points. They have now limited opponents to single digits 13 times.

South Dakota advanced to the finals with a win over North Dakota. South Dakota pulled away by a lot right after halftime. USD shot 70 percent in the third quarter. The final score was 84-61.

In the finals were both South Dakota teams. Not too long before the tournament USD beat SDSU in regular season. The game was close all the way up until the buzzer. SDSU defeated USD and became Summit League champions, they also clinched their spot in the NCAA tournament. Senior Macy Miller, now has 2,303 career points, making her the summit league scoring record holder. For the third time Miller earned Tournament MVP. Miller and Madison Guebert were both all-tournament selection.

While the Jackrabbits know they are moving on to the NCAA tournament, the Coyotes are not out of it. After spending much of the season ranked within the top 25 in the nation, many believe USD could also make it into the madness, putting two South Dakota schools in the midst of March Madness

Quarterfinals March 9 & 10		Semifinals March 11		Championship March 12
1 South Dakota State	76	8 Western Illinois	73	4 North Dakota State	73
8 Western Illinois	79	4 North Dakota State	76	2 Omaha	63
4 North Dakota State	86	2 Omaha	61	3 Purdue Fort Wayne	60
5 Oral Roberts	73	3 Purdue Fort Wayne	60
2 Omaha	81
7 North Dakota	76
3 Purdue Fort Wayne	96
6 South Dakota	70

Quarterfinals March 9 & 10		Semifinals March 11		Championship March 12
1 South Dakota State	88	1 South Dakota State	86	1 South Dakota State	83
8 Purdue Fort Wayne	50	4 Oral Roberts	55	2 South Dakota	71
4 Oral Roberts	68	2 South Dakota	84
5 Western Illinois	64	6 North Dakota	61
2 South Dakota	74
7 North Dakota State	51
3 Denver	67
6 North Dakota	80

The pot of gold

by Kylie Uhl
staff writer

March 17 is Saint Patrick's day, and as we know it to be a day of wearing green and clothes that "kiss me I'm Irish", the original celebration of St. Patrick hasn't always been that way.

The original reason why people celebrated Saint Patrick is because of this legend. Born in Roman Britain in the late 4th century, he was kidnapped around the age of 16 and taken to Ireland as a slave. He later escaped but returned sometime around 432 to convert and teach the Irish to Christianity. By the time of his death on March 17, 461, he had established monasteries, churches, and schools all across Ireland.

Since then March 17 has been known to be a feast day celebrating the Patron Saint of Ireland. Later evolving into what celebrations we see today.

In many areas where there is large amounts of Irish, in the United States host some exquisite amounts of Irish pride. Elaborate parades is one of many ways we celebrate the Irish. Boston held its first St. Patrick's Day parade in 1737, followed by New York City in 1762. Since 1962 Chicago has colored its river green to mark the holiday.

Don't worry for all of those who aren't Irish you can still celebrate. For those of you who don't feel so lucky don't worry there's always a little extra luck in four-leaf clovers. Happy St. Patrick's day.