Thanksgiving Thankfulness, Plans, and Excitement

By the Blue Ink staff: Lana Braswell, Jared Fitzgerald, Cassy Heath, Tait Johnson, Zeb Johnson, Tabi Klingenberg, Alli Kruger, Sylvia Larson, Micah Mader, Elizabeth Schmidt, Abriana Scholl

"I'm thankful for my health, my family, and that we live in a country where we have freedom. I'm very blessed."

- Ms. War Bonnet, Special Education Teacher

"I'm going to my grandma's, maybe seeing a movie, eating the big stuff, and having fun with family."

- Taylor Sage, Fourth Grade

"I want to get together with my family and just have a good time, eat a lot of delicious food, put on a couple pounds, and then work them off."

- Rosa Mendoza, Sophomore

"I'm going to go to my aunt's house and hang out with my cousin, probably eat dinner there, and then go visit my uncle."

- Triston Rekstad, Sixth Grade

"I'm most looking forward to black Friday shopping."

- Keara Beck, Eighth Grade

"I'm thankful for my friends and family and that I have a nice home to stay in."

- Michelle Fritz, Sophomore

"I'm thankful for family, and the food we have and stuff."

- Dakota Olund, Fifth Grade

"This year I will be going to my aunt's house in Sioux Falls with my sister, mother, and aunt. After Thanksgiving we will go look for Christmas trees, make cookies, play some music, and talk about our plans for black Friday."

- Ms. Lundberg, Elementary Counselor

"I'm thankful for family, food on the table, and a roof over my head. Oh yeah, and I'm more thankful for having friends too."

- Dylan Cropp, Third Grade

"I'm looking forward to days off with my kids because I enjoy time with them."

- Mr. TerWee, Middle School Reading Teacher

"I plan on sitting at home, eating chicken [for Thanksgiving]."

- Caleb Roder, Seventh Grader
